INTRODUCING A SMALL PIECE OF THE ALOHA SPIRIT INTO LIVING SPACES

// MAUI INTEGRAL FEATURES ANGULAR ARMS, CREATING A SOPHISTICATED ADDITION FOR ENVIRONMENTS WITH LIMITED SPACE.

// DESIGNED FOR COMFORT AND A SOFT AESTHETIC, MAUI IS AVAILABLE WITH TWO CHAIR COVER OPTIONS INCLUDING A SEAT & BACK COVER OR SEAT COVER ONLY.

A contemporary and timeless dining chair, the Maui collection is a form of relaxation - in structure and in attitude. In 2011, Australian designer Ivan Woods vacationed in the Hawaiian islands.

“At the time of developing the Maui collection, I had recently holidayed in the Hawaiian islands and the Island of Maui in particular. Staying in a classic Hawaiian beach shack and frequenting the café and bars in the area, gave me the opportunity to enjoy the casual, timeless, mid-century ambiance of these spaces and their modest but elegant timber furnishings. I wanted to capture and interpret some of the spirit and essence of this experience in the realisation of the Maui collection, as I felt it had a commonality with some of the casual, laid back and free spirited aspects of Australian culture,” says Ivan.

Based on this inspiration, Ivan envisaged the Maui collection would bring an elegant, relaxed personality and maybe even a small piece of the ‘Aloha’ spirit into day-to-day living spaces.

THE MAUI COLLECTION

// MAUI LOUNGER IS PURPOSEFULLY DESIGNED TO BE GENEROUS IN ITS DIMENSION, ALLOWING ONE TO RETREAT, RELAX AND SIT IN A LOUNGING POSITION.

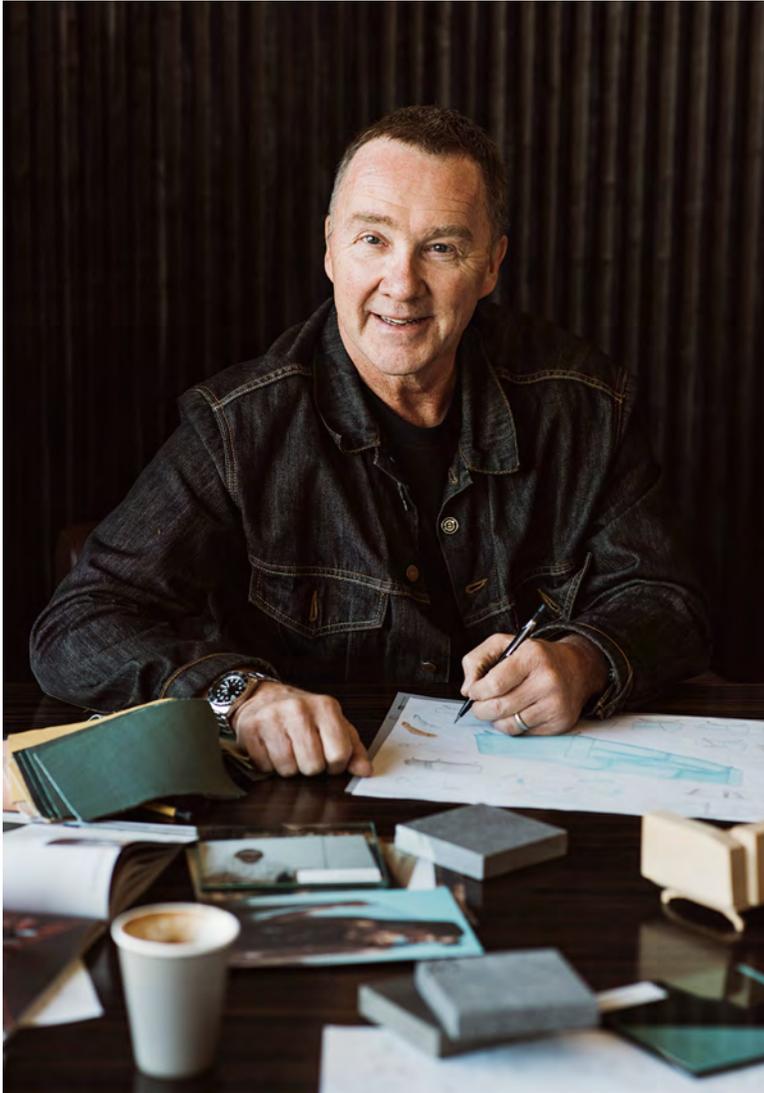

// SITTING GRACEFULLY INTO COMMUNITY SPACES IN THE OFFICE OR MEAL ZONES IN CAFES AND RESTAURANTS.

Made from solid European oak, Maui's offset angled lines coupled with elegant proportions give it a timeless and casual appeal. While embracing the user in comfort, Maui encourages one to sit back, relax and take a break. Featuring finger joints in the arms for improved strength, the eye is struck by the harmonious proportions. The European oak legs and arms are available in a selection of stains, paints and washes from the ColourLab range, each variation providing a unique aesthetic. Designed for contemporary commercial and living environments, the ColourLab Palette was developed by Giulio Ridolfo and Schiavello.

Available in three different configurations — Maui Standard, Maui Integral and Maui Lounger — each chair lives happily in all indoor environments.
